

I travel in my job, and I use the nationwide weather feature on XM radio find out the forecast of my destination city, so I urge the rejection of the NAB's petition 04-160. This petition is obviously an attempt by television and radio station owners to keep satellite radio from cutting further into their marketshare, and it unquestionably denies the 1st amendment rights of XM Radio.